

Impressionists and Paris

An Armchair Art Tour

We'll see how some Impressionists were keen to capture on canvas a Paris in constant flux—the city itself physically renovated between 1853 and 1870--including the dynamic activities of its inhabitants. This is the third in a series of 4 talks that will continue through November.

The fourth and final talk is Saturday November 18 at 2pm and is entitled "Impressionism and America".
