2010 Municipal Budget Introduced

The 2010 municipal budget was introduced at Monday night's Borough Council meeting. If passed, residents will see a reduction in the municipal portion of their property tax bill. According to Councilman Ray Rusnak, chairman of the Administrative, Finance and Public Information Committee, a property with an assessed value of $122,500 will see a decrease of $178 in their 2010 property taxes from 2009.

Rusnak explained that this year's municipal budget was a huge challenge because of the substantial reduction in state aid. The goal was to find innovative ways to cut spending without cutting services while keeping property taxes flat.

Councilmen Robert Bengivenga, Jr. and Matt Anesh also serve on the finance committee.

The finance committee had additional work this year after voters rejected the proposed Board of Education budget in April. Last week the committee formally recommended cutting the BOE budget by $1.5M. The council voted unanimously to accept the recommendations.

In January Rusnak asked members of the council to make recommendations on spending cuts prior to starting to work on the municipal budget. Soon thereafter the council began implementation of some of the suggestions, including staff reductions, rebidding of the borough recycling contract and refinancing of borough debt. The borough also bonded $800,000 to help offset the payout of retiring employees. Repayment of those bonds will not be included in this year's budget.

Because this is the borough's first full calendar year budget, it is difficult to compare expenses and income to last year's. Last year's municipal taxes were based on two separate municipal budgets; the first half of 2009 included the final two quarters of the 2008/2009 budget which traditionally is always higher than the first two quarters of 2008; and the second half of 2009 was a six-month budget introduced so that the borough could move to a calendar fiscal year. In the interest of drawing a comparison Mike English asked CFO Glenn Cullen to provide him with the figures of the last fiscal year budget.

Commenting on the budget, Mayor Charles Butrico said that the finance committee did a great job on keeping taxes down, but added that this year's budget shows an increase of $1M in spending and asked the committee to keep working on finding spending cuts.

Council President Matt Anesh announced that he is forming a budget committee and asked Councilwoman Chrissy Buteus to serve on it along with members of the finance committee.

The finance committee also announced that they will be holding budget meetings on Wednesday and Thursday, June 9 and 10. The time and place to be announced.

A public hearing on the budget will be held at a special meeting on Monday, June 28 at 7 p.m. in borough hall. Copies of the municipal budget are available in the clerk's office.

Revised Maps Redefine County's Flood Zones

48 borough properties removed—64 added; Residents are urged to consider insurance

Emergency Management Coordinator Mike Zushma has announced that new Middlesex County flood maps will go into effect on July 6. The good news for South Plainfield property owners is that 48 properties will be removed from the flood zone; the bad news is that 64 properties have been added.

For the past seven years, the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) has been revising flood maps across the nation to ensure they reflect new developments, changes in topography, and changes in water pools and flows. The goal is to provide individuals and officials with the most accurate assessment of their risk for flooding, the country's most prevalent natural disaster. The underlying rationale is that when people know their risks, they can work to mitigate them.

Although there is a net loss of over 1,100 structures in the county's newly defined flood plain, many towns have substantial increases in the number of properties designated as residing in the Special Flood Hazard Area (SFHA). South Plainfield residents are urged to check the status of their property on the new map at either the municipal office or online at www.rampp-team.com/nj.htm. Go to the Middlesex County Flood map, click on the search button on the top right of the page and fill in the property address.

Inclusion in a SFHA carries a mandatory flood insurance requirement for all structures with a federally backed mortgage. Homeowners in one of Middlesex County's newly Purchasing insurance while still technically in a low risk zone will offer property owners the advantage of a "grandfathered" status.

defined flood plains with a mortgage held by a bank with Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) protections will be required to obtain a flood insurance policy.

To minimize the cost of the insurance, residents are urged to buy flood insurance prior to the revised designations when the new map takes effect on July 6. Doing so will ensure that the insurance premium will reflect the reduced risk for flooding of your location on the current map. Residents who wait until after the new map takes effect will have to pay the full premium associated with risk of being in a newly defined flood plain. Purchasing insurance while still technically in a low risk zone will offer property owners the advantage of a "grandfathered" status. This means that although the cost of a one-year flood insurance policy will likely increase each year, you will never be paying as high a rate as you would if you wait until after the new maps goes into effect to purchase flood insurance.

One example of savings by purchasing flood insurance before the map takes effect is as follows: coverage for a $200,000 structure is $368 for a preferred risk policy, or $1,000 for a B,C,X Zone grandfathered structure before the map becomes effective and $1,764 after the new map takes effect.

According to FEMA, private insurance is the most effective defense against losses associated with a natural disaster that is four times more common than a fire over the life of a 30 year mortgage.

BOE Accepts $1.25M in Cuts, Adopts Budget

By Libby Barsky

Two days after the Borough Council voted unanimously to recommend cutting $1.25M from the defeated $52,299,264 school budget, the BOE approved the council's recommendations and formally adopted the 2010/2011 budget.

The final budget of $51,149,264 includes $48,804,444 for the general fund, $161,700 in grants and entitlements and $1,182,120 in debt services. The amount raised by taxes is $39,438,003 in the general fund and $1,183,120 for debt service. The reduced tax rate of 2.7988 for the 2010/2011 school year will be lower than the 2009/2010 rate of 2.823.

As the 2010/2011 budget was being formulated, the district suffered cuts in state aid and also had its $1.5M in 2009/2010 surplus appropriated by Governor Christie. This resulted in drastic cuts in teaching staff and programs in the budget, including the reduction of 33 positions in teachers and teacher aides and a 25% reduction in supplies for all the district schools.

The $1.25M cut will result in additional reductions in programs. Although the full day kindergarten program initiated for the 2009/2010 school year will continue in the coming school year, two other long term programs—summer school and the adult high school program and its director—have been eliminated in the budget. The director of technology, an administrative position, has also been eliminated. Further reductions are being considered, including the elimination of freshman sports, winter varsity track, competition cheerleading, varsity swimming, fall weight training and the elimination of team leaders in the high school and middle school.

To make up for the $1.25M reduction, the budget will reflect decreases of $350,000 from budgeted raises for teachers, school sponsored athletics, secretaries and support services, as well as $100,000 by eliminating the position of adult school director; $250,000 savings in health benefits costs by changing to a new health insurance provider; and $375,000 from a 1.5% employee contribution to health insurance—all amounting to a total of $1,075,000. The remaining $175,000 will come from the general fund surplus in the 2010/2011 budget.

The immediate effect of the reduction was the board approval of the withdrawal of $300,215 from its current expense emergency reserve to meet an increase in total health care costs; the appropriation of $1,199,785 in excess surplus identified in the audit of June 30 from the 2010/2011 budget; and to use $175,000 from the general fund surplus in the 2010/2011 budget.

And the winner is....

In My Opinion

To the Editor:

I had the pleasure of attending the Junior Journalist banquet held on May 12 at the American Legion. It was an incredible evening!

Charlie and Debbie Kurland of Hometown Heros partner with Nancy Grennier of the South Plainfield Observer to run this program throughout the school year. Students from South Plainfield schools write poetry, songs and essays and submit them. Winners are chosen weekly throughout the school year and each is treated to a catered dinner provided by Hometown Heros and have their photos with their teacher published in the South Plainfield Observer.

All the winners and their families were invited to an end of year banquet sponsored by Hometown Heros and the South Plainfield Observer. The students read and/or performed their selected pieces for the audience of parents and dignitaries. They were each presented with a Junior Journalist medal, a framed picture of the student with their teacher and a certificate from Hometown Heros. South Plainfield Mayor Charles Butrico and Assemblyman Patrick Diegnan were also on hand to award the students with citations.

Three winners were also chosen to receive savings bonds. The first place winner took home a $1,000 savings bond from The Ruth Kurland Memorial Award. TD Bank also awarded a second place winner with a $75 savings bond and a third place winner with a $50 savings bond.

This program has grown over the seven years that these incredible people have been running it. Charlie, Debbie and Nancy and her staff are incredible! I was extremely honored to have been invited to attend, and very glad that I was able to attend this year. The students were excited to be there and read their winning entries to the entire audience.

Charlie Kurland is a member of the South Plainfield Education Foundation. The Education Foundation is very proud of what Charlie, Debbie and Nancy have accomplished with this program. If anyone would like to help contribute to this program—the Education Foundation would be happy to accept donations toward the program for next year. Our address is: South Plainfield Education Foundation, P.O. Box 733, South Plainfield, N.J. 07080. Our tax ID number is available for those making a donation and requesting a receipt.

Please check out Hometown Heros website at hometownherosdeli.com for more information about this program.

You can also check out the Education Foundation website at www.vision2001.org for more information on the foundation.

I would like to extend congratulations to all the winners of the Junior Journalist contest this past year. They have done a great job! Keep writing during the summer. I look forward to seeing the winning entries all during the next school year.

Dear Editor,

Last week a united Borough Council reduced taxes for homeowners by finding ways to reduce the school board budget which was defeated by the voters in April. Instead of increasing by $100, residents will now see a $15 decrease in their school taxes this year. The council's $1.25M reduction doesn't cut one teacher, nor does it eliminate a single program for our students. In fact, just the opposite; the council recommended additional ways to bring teachers and programs back.

I want to personally thank the plan's architect, Councilman Ray Rusnak, who heads our finance committee. About a month ago I assigned that committee the responsibility for reviewing the board's budget. I urged the committee to come up with ways to save money that would not take teachers out of the classroom or in any way hurt the students. After many long hours working with Glenn Cullen, our CFO/administrator, and Bob Swisher, our auditor, Rusnak presented a plan that did just that.

I also want to commend the entire council for their teamwork. Rusnak worked hard to make the budget review a bipartisan endeavor. Once the cuts were sketched out, Rusnak reached out to Mayor Butrico who immediately got on board and worked to make sure the others in his party would do the same. The mayor deserves a thank you for the role he played.

The work's not over, as the school board must still decide whether to follow our recommendations, which we tried to make as flexible as possible. Rusnak called the budget reductions a win for the taxpayers and the children. I agree.

Dear Hometown Heros and the South Plainfield Observer,

Once again, the Junior Journalist banquet was terrific. I want to thank you for acknowledging our children for their hard work and accomplishments. It will be a night they will remember for a long time. Everything was perfect: the honored speakers, all the awards and pictures, and the children's readings.

As I said before, "It takes a village to raise a child," and I am glad that Hometown Heros and the South Plainfield Observer are part of our village!

To the Editor:

Congratulations to the South Plainfield Volunteer Fire Department for the show they put on for the people who braved the winds of May 8. Ruby Shooz played music for two uninterrupted hours and performed beautifully. The applause after each song showed that the audience was into it and enjoyed the professionalism of each performer. My wife and I were very satisfied with everything.

There has been a major change in recycling batteries. Since the chemical composition of certain batteries no longer include mercury or other highly toxic metals, the United States Government now deems them safe to dispose of in the regular trash. The batteries included in this change are the standard AAA, AA, C, D and 9V; therefore, it is no longer necessary to bring them to the library as the borough has removed the battery recycling bin. If you have any other types of batteries that still need to be recycled, you will need to contact the borough's recycling department at (908) 226-7621.

The library will take this opportunity to remind everyone of the rules for computer usage at the library. If you are a resident of South Plainfield, you must have your South Plainfield library card to use a computer. If you do not have a library card you can register for one by showing identification with your name and a South Plainfield address. This can be a driver's license, utility bill, rental agreement, or any other official document. If you have lost your library card, you can obtain a replacement by showing identification and paying a $2 fee. Parents and guardians, please remember that children below the age of 15 are required to have a parent present while they are using a computer. Moreover, this is a good time to also remind all adults that the library is a public building and it is impossible for the staff to monitor children. We do not know if a child is leaving with a parent or a stranger, so it is in the best interest of both adults and children that the children not be left alone while in the library.

The library staff is the final stages of training for the new circulation/catalog system that the library is installing. Therefore, the training will require that the library be closed on Tuesday, May 25, Wednesday, May 26 and Thursday, May 27. The system we currently have is quite old and no longer supported by the vendor. The new system we will be installing will be state-of-the-art and have all the applications found in the current system plus much more. We will be switching over in June, so watch for the announcement. Due to the training, Miss Mija and Miss Linda have been forced to cancel all story times for the week of May 24; however, they are preparing for a great summer reading program.

Library Board Lacks Quorum to Vote on Surplus

By Libby Barsky

The Library Board of Trustees was unable to vote on whether to accept the Borough Council's resolution asking the library to return 10% of its $1.7M surplus ($170,000) to provide tax relief to the borough at its May 11 meeting because three members were absent.

In making the request, the council noted that every department was asked to cut costs by 10%, and "efforts to cut costs should apply to all departments, agencies and boards, including the library." According to Councilman Ray Rusnak, the library is the only department that has not provided tax relief to the borough.

Acting Chairman and Trustee Cheryl Nagel-Smiley noted that the library board had advanced the borough $140,000 towards the cost of the recent roof replacement. Since the actual cost was approximately $112,000, the board requested the return of $27,999, which the council paid. Nagel-Smiley commented that since that money was spent on a capital expense, the library has already given the borough the necessary relief it sought. "That money [for the roof] is a capital fund. We maintained this building. When we move, the borough has a building in perfect condition," said Trustee Kathleen Thomas.

Library Director Sundra Randolph noted the $1.7M surplus was accumulated over 20 years and was never part of the $1.3M the borough allocates to the library each year by law.

"All taxpayer money is spent for salaries and equipment. The surplus is money that has come directly to the library in the form of fines, gifts and grants. We don't use the money we receive in fines as part of our regular budget. That money has been set aside. It's a practice I started since I came here," said Randolph. She added that the governor is reducing library funding by 74%, from $14M to $3.6M. A reduction of this magnitude will impact on matching federal funds. The results of these cuts will do away with many shared inter-library services with no inter-library loans, no books for the blind and disabled, and the loss of Internet access to electronic databases.

A bill is also pending in the assembly that would eliminate the minimum funding requirement for local libraries, leaving the decision to each town.

Nagel-Smiley commented on letters suggesting alternate spaces for the library, including one suggesting to trade the senior citizen building for the library building, saying that while she appreciated the input, the application to move the library to Montrose Avenue is still pending, and has been continued to Thursday, May 27.

Local Businessman Charged With Bribery

Roman Zjawin, 47, a resident of Towaco, was arrested and charged with bribery on May 11 after an investigation conducted by the South Plainfield Police Department.

Inspector Edward Laferrera, an official of the Bureau of Fire Prevention, was conducting a periodic inspection of European Motor Service, located at 2114 Park Ave. for fire code violations. During the inspection Zjawin offered Inspector Laferrera a $100 dollar bill to avoid being cited for 18 fire code violations. The premises were temporarily closed for various fire and safety violations.

Detective Vincent Campagna was the primary investigator who arrested Zjawin without incident. Bail was set at $2500, which Zjawin posted.

Club Members Honored at Annual Convention on the honor roll two years ago, was inducted in the Order of the Lilies, the organization comprised of special honored women.

The members of the club joined in applauding these two honorees at the regular club meeting held at the American Legion on May 6.

Special Project Chairman Natalie Bergen reported on the successful luncheon fashion show held on April 25. The proceeds will be divided between Autism New Jersey and the club's Scholarship Fund.

Education Chairman Debbie Vokral reported that her committee met to chose the recipients of the two scholarships that the club will be awarding to graduating South Plainfield High School seniors.

Proposed new member Whitney Haggerty joined the women participating in a "Pound Auction" with everyone having a grand time bidding on packages containing a pound of "something" ranging from a pound of grass seed to a pound of pennies.

The final meeting of the club year will be a banquet held at Giovanna's Restaurant to feature the installation of the officers for the next club year: Lucy Hudson, president; Natalie Bergen, vice president; June Flannery, treasurer; Diane Gallo, recording secretary and Mary Ann Iannitto, federation/corresponding secretary. Banquet Chairman Grace Bertucci announced that she will be taking reservations for the affair.

Marge Reidy is inducted into the Order of the Lilies.

Five members of the Suburban Woman's Club of South Plainfield attended the annual convention of the New Jersey State Federation of Women's Clubs held at the Trump Plaza in Atlantic City on May 4. Artistic Scholarship Established in Name of SPHS Graduate

A new scholarship for artistic students, the Jim Painton Scholarship Fund, is being established this year in memory of James Painton, a South Plainfield High School graduate and lifelong resident of the borough.

Painton, whose studios were located in South Plainfield for many years, helped bring a new level of creative and technical expertise to the design field. His tireless efforts on behalf of his clients as well as his eagerness to help his friends and colleagues won him respect and admiration within the graphic arts community. He could always be counted on to make the "impossible" projects a reality.

His talents were not limited to commercial graphic design, but also included cartooning, creative writing and even songwriting. In 1986, one of his songs captured the attention of Howard Stern, whose humorous radio program with WXRK (K-Rock) in New York attracted a large audience in the greater metropolitan area. Painton was awarded a trip to London, England for a song parody he entered in the competition.

The scholarship is intended to inspire creative students from SPHS and is not limited to graphic design. Its purpose is to encourage students in graphic arts, music, theatre, animation, puppetry, poetry and creative writing.

The first scholarship will be presented on June 2 by Mara Walter, a respected art educator who taught Painton.

Those who would like more information or would like to contribute to the scholarship fund should email runniman@comcast.net. Please put "Jim Painton Scholarship" in the subject line.

Spaghetti Dinner Proceeds Support Troop 207 Outings

By Patricia Abbott

South Plainfield Boy Scout Troop 207 held their annual spaghetti dinner at the American Legion Post on Oak Tree Avenue on April 17. The American Legion Post is the charter organization for the troop.

The boys and adult volunteers, along with Scoutmaster John Mocharski, worked to prepare and serve over 200 dinners between 4 and 8 p.m. The scouts set up and decorated the hall, bussed tables and served meals. Parents handled food preparations and assisted with the cooking.

Scoutmaster Mocharski, who was attired in a red chef's jacket, ran an efficient kitchen and kept the event running smoothly.

All of the food was donated. Desserts were available for purchase. Takeout service was also available.

The funds raised will be used to replace or purchase equipment and to offset the cost of outings, including summer camp.

Troop 207, consisting of 11 scouts, meets at the American Legion Post on Thursdays from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

The troop originally held all-you-can-eat chili dinners at the high school, but switched to spaghetti dinners about five years ago.

South Plainfield Cultural Arts Commission Talent Showcase

South Plainfield's Got Talent!

25 acts featured in SPCAC's second talent showcase

By Patricia Abbott

Twenty-five performing acts had the opportunity to demonstrate their talents to the community at the South Plainfield Cultural Arts Commission (SPCAC) second annual Talent Showcase. The two-hour event was held at Fellowship Hall in Wesley Methodist Church on May 1.

The event featured South Plainfield solo performers, family acts and friends performing together. Participants ranged in age from 6½ to senior citizens who sang, danced, recited poetry, played instruments and performed stand up comedy. More than 100 audience members cheered on their favorites.

The talent showcase auditions were held in April. Over the course of two days approximately 25 acts auditioned in hopes of a spot in the show. Each performer had three to five minutes to impress the judges with their poise, stage presence, overall impression and talent.

Judges for the auditions were SPCAC members and Councilwoman Chrissy Buteas. The judges had quite a challenge to determine who would become the finalists.

Talent Showcase Chairperson Pamela Stefanek said, "Chrissy was very instrumental in connecting me with the Board of Education and Superintendent Jose Negrón, allowing us to communicate to students of our town. This led to a very diverse show. Last year we had only seven performers. I'm excited about how the program has grown, both in the number of acts, age level and types of performances. The showcase provides a platform for all to express their talents, rather than a competition."

Performing in the show were Kristiana Buschan, Jessica Dandola, Kyle Gallardo, Chloe Lahaie, Hailey Medina, Nicole Mehl, Nicole O'Sullivan, Kimberly Sheedy, Ellie Tom, Amanda Ciardiello, Kim Lam, Katherine Dolinski, Brianna Weber, Denise Weber, Christian Weber, Chloe Wilson, Claire

Minarck, Lee Jackson, Jesse Lacerda, Barry Gould and Ken Reisch.

Girl Scout Troop 65118 purchased and baked refreshments. SPCAC member Ken Cavanaugh donated his services as photographer for the event.

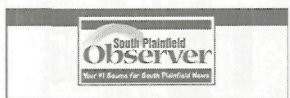

The SPCAC consists of a group of dedicated volunteers who work to bring a variety of programs and performances to the citizens of South Plainfield and surrounding communities. The commission is always seeking volunteers to assist in organizing events and programs. If you have a talent or know someone locally who does, we encourage you to audition for next year's program.

To volunteer or to learn more about SPCAC, email spcac.nj@gmail.com; contact SPCAC chair Pamela Stefanek at (908) 754-2381 or visit us on Facebook (South Plainfield Cultural Arts Commission).

Junior Journalists Honored at Annual Banquet

Twenty-six school students in grades one through seven were recognized for their achievements in the area of creative writing at the seventh annual Junior Journalist banquet on May 12.

Roosevelt School teacher Michael Bertram, whose students annually submit hundreds of entries, treated the crowd to humorous poetry conveying the ups and downs of (and his love of) teaching eight-year-olds.

The annual contest is open to K-12 students who live in the Borough of South Plainfield. The eighth annual Junior Journalist contest will begin this October and run through April 2011.

Club Holds Tryouts; Raffle Winner to be Drawn

The SPSC held open tryouts this past week and doing the evaluations for the club were the New York Red Bulls. As part of contracting the Red Bulls for Fall training for our teams, they have agreed to handle our tryout evaluations. Trainers came out and set up the drills and scrimmages that enabled the kids to show their skills on the fields. Approximately 163 kids, ranging from our U-8 group to our U-14, came out and took to the fields to participate in the tryouts. Evaluations are being completed and reviewed by the SPSC board and then sent to the team coaches for team selection. All participants in the tryouts will be contacted about selections by mid-June. Best of luck to all those who came out.

A reminder that the Super 50/50 tickets need to be returned by this weekend, as our drawing will take place on Sunday, May 23 at the Kenneth Avenue fields after our last game. Please turn in your ticket stubs and monies collected to your coaches by Saturday, May 22. First place winner will receive 70% of the proceeds, second place receives 20% and third place receives 10%. If you need tickets or have any questions, please contact Chrissy Sanko at (908) 561-5533.

Thank you to all those who came out and helped with field duty day this past Saturday. Our fields have never looked better and a huge thank you to Bob Sanko and Joe Evans, who have worked diligently to get the fields in such prime condition. We get many compliments from our opponents about our fields and facilities. It's nice to know all that hard work is appreciated by all who have the opportunity to play there.

The club will be hosting summer camps by Brandao Soccer and the New York Red Bulls as follows:

- Brandao Soccer Youth Soccer Camp for boys and girls, June 28-July 2 (M-F) for students entering grades 1-8, 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Kenneth Avenue Fields. Cost: $195. For more info, go to www.brandaosoccer.com.
- New York Red Bulls Youth Soccer Camp for boys and girls, August 2-August 6 (M-F) for ages 7 to 14, 5 to 8 p.m. at Kenneth Avenue fields one and two. Cost: $150.

Patrick Hunter Signs With University of Wisconsin

Iowa Central Community College wrestler Patrick Hunter has signed a National Letter of Intent to wrestle for the University of Wisconsin next season. Hunter is from South Plainfield and a graduate of St. Benedict's Prep in Newark.

As a freshman, Hunter was part of a Triton squad that blitzed through the NJCAA National Tournament and set a record for points scored (161.5). Hunter did his part, winning a title at 125. He redshirted this season to train and save a season of eligibility.

At Wisconsin, he will be a part of one of the top programs in the nation. The Badgers finished third at the ever competitive Big Ten Wrestling Tournament and then took fourth at the NCAA Championships.

"This is really well deserved for Patrick," said head wrestling coach Luke Moffitt. "He really sets the example for the kids in our room that want to go Division I. It's good to see hard work and dedication pay off for a kid."

Patrick also earned Academic All American honors for a 3.5 GPA.

U-11 ARSENAL

By Mark Resende

Arsenal Drops a Tough One

On a beautiful spring Sunday afternoon, the South Plainfield Soccer Club U-11 boys team, Arsenal, traveled to Scotch Plains for a match against one of their regular rivals, the Vikings of Scotch Plains-Fanwood. Every time these two teams face off, the game is close, exciting, and well played, and this contest would prove to be no different.

Arsenal was forced to start this game shorthanded with only 10 players, and would not get to even strength until two-thirds of the way into the first half. They would have only 11 players the rest of the way, which meant there were no substitutions on this warm day.

Arsenal withstood the early pressure from the Vikings to keep the game scoreless, with goalie Jason Cieszkiewicz turning away every shot he faced. Once Arsenal was at full strength they would gain control of the game and strike first. Jake Hoffman scored on a breakaway run from mid-field near the end of the first half that was made possible with two great passes from Alec Paez and Jared Marks. The goal would give Arsenal a 1-0 halftime lead.

Most of the second half was evenly played, but the Vikings began to take control down the stretch as Arsenal ran out of gas. Arsenal could not clear the ball from their defensive end of the field, but kept the Vikings off of the scoreboard for as long as possible. One exciting sequence saw defender Mason Resende clear the ball from in front of an open goal after it got past the diving attempt of goalie Nick Plate, who was making one great save after another to keep his team in the game. In the end, the relentless pressure by the Vikings paid off as they scored two goals in the closing minutes to earn a 2-1 victory over Arsenal.

Despite the final score, this was a great game played by Arsenal. Every player on the field, including Scott Riccardi, Tyler Curtis, Jake Smith, Cristian Butrico and Edwin Rivas, played their guts out, and they would all be winners on this day. Arsenal's next game will be played at the complex on Kenneth Avenue at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 22, so please come out and support the team.

When Andy "The Caddy Comedian" is doing his wickedly funny stand-up routines, he delivers his lines with a devilish grin. On the golf course, however, Hayward is all business, and he was at his serious best against KC's Korner delivering a blistering even-par 33 to spark the Roughriders to a narrow 11-9 win.

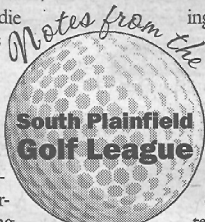

Hayward's driver was on fire as he scorched his drives all night long, made impressive birdies on the fourth and eighth holes, and then capped off his superb round by draining a tricky, side-hill, downhill putt for par on the ninth hole.

Frank Weingart's 40 was a real plus for the Roughriders who badly needed that score because their other twosome was so lost they had to ask for directions back to the clubhouse.

Dan Conti of KC's Korner just returned from a vacation in Florida where he got his sometimes quirky driver under control. Conti's deft touch around the greens helped him score a 38 to earn the medal for his team.

Just when Alfie's Boys looked like they might just run away from the rest of the field in the National Division, along comes Witty's Liquors to give them a sharp come-uppance, 16-4. Sean Brooks again led the way for Witty's with a fine round of 35. Brooks seems to be getting better as the weather gets warmer, and he's already looking forward to some sweltering Tuesdays in July. Teammate Bob Chase contributed a solid 36 as Witty's moved into a three-way tie for second place in the American Division behind the undefeated Roughriders.

In a high-scoring match, the Italian-American Club, led by Frank Approvato's 41, soundly whipped the defending champions, 2 Buds, 2 Dubs, 19-1. News of this total thrashing will not help the recuperative process of Captain Dale Dube who is still on the D.L. following knee surgery. Last year's champs obviously miss the inspirational leadership of their captain—the best score the team produced was a 42 by Jeff Orth.

Ray Starnick hit a beautiful approach shot on the second hole that unfortunately landed on some hardpan and his ball wound up on the third tee box. From that difficult lie, he had a major problem getting back to the green and scrambled to a double-bogey six. That was the only glitch on his card as last season's Player-of-the-Year fired a nifty 36 only to see his team lose a tough one to Oak Tree Dental of Edison 11½-8½. Martin Lillis led the way for the victors with a solid round of 37.

Captain Chris Dillon of Unique Sports Accessories finally got his team untracked by posting a 38 to lead his talented squad to a 12½-7½ win over McCriskin's Home For Funerals. Wally Heinzer had a 45 to earn the medal for McCriskin's.

In the final match of the night, Twin City Pharmacy had a difficult time before they finally prevailed over Sport & Social 11½-8½. Joe Diller and Guy Severini, who are already playing in mid-season form, shot a pair of 37s for Twin City. Dennis Bibby's 40 was the low round for Sport & Social. In a key confrontation next week, Twin City will match their powerful line-up against the red-hot Andy Hayward and the undefeated Roughriders.

Low scores for the night: Andy Hayward, 33; Sean Brooks, 35; Bob Chase, 36; Ray Starnick, 36; Joe Diller, 37; Mike Gokey, 37; Martin Lillis, 37; Guy Severini, 37; Dan Conti, 38; Chris Dillon, 38.

Pender and Moore Families and Pender & Sons Trucking Renew Adopt-A-Spot Contracts

Pender & Sons Trucking is renewing its Adopt-A-Spot contract with the South Plainfield Clean Business Association to remove litter from the Willow Avenue skate park behind Borough Hall for the next two years. The Pender and Moore Families have extended their agreement for the PAL Building and Community Pool parking lots for two years as well. The Pender and Moore families have also renewed their contract to remove litter from the Nature Center at the Highland Woods Environmental Education Reserve for another year. The Nature Center agreement also includes caring for the butterfly garden and sweeping the Nature Center decks.

Diane Pender checks the sites weekly to see if they need work. She believes it is important to stay on top of the litter problem in these heavily used recreational areas. If litter begins to accumulate, people think it is not important to be careful and the problem gets worse. People are much less likely to litter in a clean area.

When asked why her family has taken on so many Adopt-A-Spot obligations, Pender replied, "We really enjoy giving back to the town.

We love what it does for us. We spend a lot of time enjoying all [the] activities in these spots. This is another way of saying 'thank you' South Plainfield."

The CBA is looking for more adopters for recreational and open space areas such as Putnam Park and Veteran's Park. For more information about the Adopt-A-Spot program, contact the Clean Communities coordinator at (908) 226-7621.

Members of Ruby Shooz perform at the fire department fundraiser.

Fabulous Oldies Show Rocks the House

The South Plainfield High School auditorium was rocking and rolling on May 8 thanks to the South Plainfield Volunteer Fire Department's annual concert featuring the Ruby Shooz band, musicians who play 50s and 60s tunes as well as some new classics. The event was attended by more than 260.

They captured the audiences attention from the very first song and soon fingers and feet were tapping. By the end of the evening, people were dancing in front of the stage. The lead singer often hopped off stage to interact with audience members.

Volunteers from the fire department were kept busy taking tickets and selling 50/50 tickets. Many ordered their tickets well in advance. This year's group was recommended by their promoter, Spotlight Music Productions. The 50/50 was won by resident Steven Turrisse.

The fire department has been sponsoring the popular concerts since 1996.
